

Hurt me!

*Hurt me, if you need to,
but do it right and don't be sick.
Kill me, but do it softly,
do it quiet, do it quick.
Punish me, when I deserve it,
but reward me, too, if you care.
Hate me in your darkest hours.
Confront me, if you dare.*

Love me with a man's whole power.
With you, I wanna share.
Touch me, not like a broken flower,
I'm tough and I can bear,
whatever comes, whatever shows,
except you'll disappear
and I don't know what was my fault.
That's what I, the most, fear.

*Hurt me, if you need to,
but do it right and don't be sick.
Kill me, but do it softly,
do it quiet, do it quick.
Punish me, when I deserve it,
but reward me, too, if you care.
Hate me in your darkest hours.
Confront me, if you dare.*
